When a woman brings forth a male child in a family, there is great joy and happiness because the child is regarded as a potential future savior of the family who shall carry the genealogy of the family to another generation yet unborn. It wasn’t so to the Jews who, 2000 years ago (40 Jubilees), failed to realize their messiah when He was born as a male child and requires the number of 40 to be dedicated. This, hence, has caused more harm than good to the Jews both at “Home” and in Diaspora.

Today, the Jews find it very difficult to believe that their messiah was born and are still expecting the day of the emergence of Yahoshua messiah. Those who have grown along the years to believe have ran out of patience just as “Christians” in welcoming the messiah, as they put it, “get raptured.” And the question kept lingering: Will the messiah ever come? The same could be said to a people in the East of West Africa. A Nation that has travailed for decades in search of a place of theirs. A people whose historical lineage has been neglected for fear of being uncovered. A people situated along the banks of River Niger, in the Eastern Region of a country called Nigeria -- a name which is only but a taboo to the belief of these people in as much as the name was given by a Gentile woman. A people who do not know who they are, what they are, why at all they were made to exist on planet Earth. A people lost in the wilderness of Western dictatorship – the Igbo people.

“Most high when shall these people realize who they are, what they are, and why they exist?”

October the 14th 1964 was a great day to the Igbo people more especially mankind. A day yet unknown to the Igbo and mankind will go down for good as one of the greatest day man will remain to celebrate on the planet Earth. It is a day which will live to speak for itself, so please don’t throw the questions. Just as the Jews in the year 67-70AD, who failed to hearken to the prophesy thereby falling into the hands of Emperor Titus, the Igbo people also failed to read the sign in the sky, thus they fell in the hands of General Gowon in the year 1967-70 in one of history’s most inhuman act of Western psycho-political discrimination over the chosen people – the Semitic race.

Since after the abortive revolution, the Igbo people have remained as third-class citizens in a land, which is being sustained economically, financially, morally, physically, etc. by them. Why is it so? No Igbo man has yet decipher. It remains yet a mystery, 30 years to the night before the morning of the year of Hanukkah from the end of the war, forty years after the night before the morning of the year of Hanukkah from the day of “independence” from the Gentile state of Britain -- bringing to a mystical culmination of seventy years (70). These calls for wisdom of Daniel’s prophesy.

Seventy is a mystical number to the Jews; ditto, forty, thirty, twelve and seven, etc.
These numbers determine events and the beginning or and the end of an era. Above all the number 120 marks the end of an era of Gentile dominance and the beginning of Jewish rule. Moses was 120 years from the time of his birth to his death before Israel entered Canaan. It took Noah 120 years to build the Ark, marking the end of a wicked generation. Today it is 120 jubilees from the day of Adam. Will mankind witness another change?

When one takes a flight to the continent of Africa and precisely to Nigeria, one beholds a country of more or less 120 million people, an infrastructure that can only be compared to that of the Europeans and Americans, and a budget that is far better than most European nations. What of natural resources: it is abundant, yet the country is only striving as one the most corrupt countries on earth.

Ethnically, the country has three major nations out of the more than 200 so-called minorities. This is the area that has continually threatened the bond that binds these nations together from one series of ethnic clash to the other at least every year. But one astonishing thing about all these clashes is the fact that the Igbo people have always remained the scapegoats, even when it does not by any means involve them. Dan Chikwe could not hold his breath when he said:

I could notice the suffering of the Igbo as a result of their being marginalized in the country occasioning victimization, discrimination, deprivation, frustration, improved aggression and wanton destruction of lives and properties melted out to the Igbo in the geographical entity called Nigeria –

(Agonies of a marginalized people, p.18)

This is exactly what has been going on since this country since it was declared as an “independent nation." The Igbo people have not known true rest just as the Jews in present Israel. The 40 years landmark has come and gone. Will the Igbo people be separated and dedicated unto the Most High, who has chosen them amongst their brothers (the Jews) in Diaspora? This is just what I want to look at.

The Igbo have fulfilled the 40 years; shall we continue to look at ourselves as Gento-Nigeria dictates? Or shall we break up the shackles by the Grace of the Most High and embark on fundamental reevaluation and redefinition of our preexisting lifestyle? The time has indeed come! The Igbo people long before now had enjoyed the best of nature; coming out of a society where nature was kind, nature furnished them with enough food, enough land, enough of basic things they needed to live a pretty good life, and a society that was governed by honor and obligations. Land could neither be bought nor sold; there were no fights over the ownership of land. The land belonged to everyone. For everyone belong to the most High (Chukwu).

This was rather not so to the Gentiles (Europeans), who had to compete with their brothers for breakfast, where nature was rather stingy due to the competitive nature the land and women they had acquired. Today the Igbo people have not only been deprived of almost all the virtues that was passed down to them to do and keep through their Ancestors Abram, Isaac, and Jacob -- which has landed them into more troubles -- but have also een denied the opportunity to see the Most High (Chukwu) through their own imagination or to address Him in a word that came out of their own language.

What a pity!

It is in the Igbo culture that a woman must observe a mandatory period of 40 days if she gives birth to a male child, after which the child shall be dedicated in the sanctuary (obi) not synagogue or church buildings as the case is today-- which is just an evidence of a people who have lost their identity and cultural heritage.

This ethos was handed down by the Most High to the Igbo people through their Ancestors as a culture, an epitome of how they shall be found in a strange land for four generations, which is a period of uncleanness (or the Gentile period) after which they shall be liberated or separated and then dedicated as the chosen nation amongst the Jews. This was witnessed in Egypt where the Jews suffered for 400 years but were afterward liberated and were dedicated on the third thousand years after creation in a land of theirs.

It was and era that the Most High used four Great people to accomplish His sketch work: Moses, Joshua, David, and Solomon. These were the four great pillars the Most High used to prove to mankind that He could come into their affairs and institute His theocratic government without any interference. It happened in the sketch; it must happen in the project. It happened in the sketch also how Noah the Most High used to build an Ark for 120 years, alone in the wilderness of Gentile dominance, yet it happened and animals -- the basest of living things -- were allowed to come in; it must happen again. It also happened that the Most High raised great people in Israel at the age of thirty (30), such as Yusuf (Joseph), David, and Yahoshua Messiah 40 jubilees ago. It is a pattern that cannot be broken.

The forty days represents the four natural powers on earth, which the woman and the male child must have to satisfy, 10 days each so as to be welcomed into the supernatural realm. The number 10 mystically represents the number of the world. The ten lost tribes of Israel were scattered in all the four corners of the globe. The four corners and 10 sum up to the number 40 when multiplied; it is a mystery. Four also carries the spirit of universal light; thus Joshua was born 4000 years after creation. He made it crystal clear: “I am the light of the world.” (Biblical quotation)

If Joshua was born 4000 years after creation and it is very clear that today is 2000 years after His birth, then the world from the time of creation should be 6000 years, which also is 6 days in the eyes of the Most High. Six is the number of man and if four represents the four corners of the earth then six and four will give you ten (10), which is the number of mankind.

To add more proof about Joshua being born on the fourth thousand year, the Bible have it that the sun, which provides light to the world, the moon and the stars, were created on the fourth day-- a day of universal light and were meant for signs. Going by Joshua’s statement, as quoted above, it is very clear that He is the reincarnated Hanukkah (light) on the first day of creation. “Let there be Hanukkah (light)”-- (Biblical quotation). The light was made manifest in Enoch when in his days mankind started calling upon the name of Yahweh. It was one thousand years. The first day. The Bible has it that a day in the sight of the Most High is like one thousand years on earth. The second day (peleg) started with Noah and ended around the time of Abraham. The Most High caused the separation to happen in the time of Noah and asked Abraham to come out from his kinsmen to a place where He shall dedicate and prosper him. This promise was actualized on the third day (dedication) the third thousand year, when the Jews entered Canaan and were dedicated. It ended with David – Solomon era. The Jewish nation was made.

The fourth thousand years, culminated in the emergence of Yahoshua Messiah and His disciples (the light and stars respectively). The fifth thousand year has to do with the emergence of the Gentile political kingdoms some one thousand years ago when great Empires arose as symbolized, how great fishes of the sea were created. It was the year of grace. The early part of the sixth thousand year saw the emergence of the creeping beasts of the land – the Religious Kingdoms. But in the evening of the sixth day, Yahoshua Messiah arose. “After that, I shall return to rebuild the tabernacle of David that is fallen down...”

What do we have 6000 years from creation? It’s a pity it has to stamp its arrival by consuming 6000 people at the World Trade Center. A jubilee we are aware is 50 years.
Divide both and tell me whether the pattern of Noah have not been fulfilled or that of the total life span of Moses. The world is blind because the revelation of the things of the Most High has been revealed to the basest. The unrecognized in the affair of the world, who ever thought that the Most High will prefer animals, the basest of living things, to the more advanced human beings in the days Noah. “Just as in the days of Noah, so shall it be in the days of the son of man. (Bible quotation)
The number forty was fulfilled by Israel in different occasions in the wilderness and by great prophets such as Moses, who fasted for forty days on the mountain; Joshua also fasted for forty days, etc. I have already explained the importance of 40. The Igbo people have also fulfilled the number forty in Nigeria from the day of independence which, surprisingly yet only too true, was fulfilled in the same period as the 120 jubilee landmark; its not a coincident. The forty years by the Igbo is summarized in one word: “slave” -- in Nigeria. It is a hard word, but it is the truth. The Igbo people do the majority of foods imported into the country. What of transport business, both air and land? But please take a trip to the Southeast, as it is popularly called. I leave you to judge for yourself. It is a pattern that must be fulfilled.

The Igbo people brought forth a male child, a reincarnated light, but failed to realize it; instead, they went to war to liberate themselves. There is no doubt that the Igbo must be liberated but, quote me: “It must be only through one man.”

The forty-first year (41st) brought about the light. It was a filled with apocalypse. It’s a pity only few heard this. But this second year “shall witness greater and greater involvement of the supernatural in the affairs of man.” The suffering of the Igbo people is come to an end. The Igbo people shall realize with tears who they are this year. The Igbo people shall witness natural healing in their land this year. The Igbo people shall be gathered by this man into one fold, into one culture (Messianic Hebrewism) and shall go forth to dominate and dominate the planet earth. Don’t believe me but pray to be alive to witness the day. The great event, which is to be unfolded in this area, had started little long ago.
February 1986 was a great day in Igboland and will continue to be a great day. March/April 1994 was a great day and will remain a great day. March/April 2002 shall speak for itself as the year unfolds. The Igbo people should begin to realize that they have been chosen. The Igbo people shall begin to know that the Most High wanted to show His supremacy in this last days as the chosen nation amongst the Jews in Diaspora, whose manifestations and blessing shall come after their own bondage and suffering hence our progenitor Shem, Abram, Gad, Eri... was caused by the Most High to be stranger in a foreign land to suffer humiliation and intimidations, political victimization, etc. but will be sifted as corn sifted in a sieve when the new tabernacle of David (Messianic Hebrewism) is restored.

“The Igbo should know that if their falling away during the Biafran Revolution brought about 'reconciliation' and riches in Nigeria, their 'gathering into one fold shall bring joy, happiness, and, above all, life everlasting not only in Nigeria but to the entire world.”

“The Igbo people should know that their culture which they abandoned is the first dictionary of the Bible.” Let the Igbo man also know that the Most High has raised Joshua to accomplish and fulfill every bit of pattern to be fulfilled and to eventually rule as an Igbo man in the theocratic government of the Most High for he (Joshua) is the spirit of truth whom the world cannot receive.

Forty years of isolation from the affairs in Nigeria, forty years of marginalization, forty years of genocide, forty years of violence, and, now, it is fire putting down virtually all the major markets in the country from Abuja to Lagos to Gombe, Asaba, Onitsha, Aba, etc. It only reminds one of the day of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the fact that the Igbo people remain the most affected irrespective of the affected area. Yet the Igbo people can’t read the sign in the sky. When a woman exceeds her 40 days and refused to come out from mkpuke, what happens to her? Israel completed 400 years in Egypt and came out. Moses spent 40 days on the mountain and came out. Joshua fasted for 40 days and came out. The Igbo people have spent forty days in Nigeria (Hellenism), yet they find it difficult to come out.

“COME OUT OF HER AND BE YE SEPARATE!

No Igbo man at Home and Diaspora shall find true peace if he is not separated from the present system of the world. The Igbo people must come out and return to their culture – Messianic Hebrewism. This is the only safe ground for the Igbo people and for the word – I quote authoritatively. It is great how these things are being revealed to us these last days not because we are the best but because of the promise the Most High has made to our forefathers; to forewarn us of the danger ahead so that we shall not panic as in the days past but should always count on the Most High who remains our Mighty man in battle. For the supremacy of His grace is abundant to carry us through Messianic Hebrewism.

Let the separation commence: Let those who believe this report be separated in this year of separation unto Messianic Hebrewism and those who refuse to believe remain where they are and let’s see whether these words shall not speak for itself.

Conclusively, the voice of this article has no reference other than the inspirational revelation of Yahoshua Messiah. It is a voice that has been challenged by many here in Igboland and stood its ground. It is a voice that has remained silence in order to fulfill the pattern of $6 - 7 - 7 = 20$ years. But now this voice is about to be revealed. The revelation of this voice note shall bring about the fall of the entire Western system. From their culture -- Hellenism -- to their religion -- Christianity -- and finally their system of government -- democracy. In their places, Messianic Hebrewism, Zionism, and theocracy respectively shall be instituted for good with the seed of Abraham in control that is an Igbo man.

I STAND FOR ANY CHALLENGE TO THIS AUTHORITY; be it from the land, air, fire, and water, let those who wish to oppose this authority get prepared. Lest they say they were taken unaware. But for you whom this authority shall liberate; you shall live to praise the Holy Name of the Most High of Israel, Yahoshua Messiah.
